WE KNOW BOATS INSIDE OUT

Josh's Fishing Tips For December

Well as we all know the Wet Season is upon us, for those of you who are not put off by the weather, there is plenty of good fishing to be done, Lee Point has been producing great numbers of quality table species as well as the odd mackerel. Salt water arm has also been fishing well for Mud Crabs, Barra, Threadfin Salmon and Mangrove Jack. When chasing Barra and salmon it's worth flicking light weight soft plastic up on the flats and in the mangroves, and as for the jacks they have been sitting on the rock bars. If you have packed your boat away for the up and coming Wet Season, don't let this stop you from wetting a line as the wet season gives plenty of land based opportunities both in fresh and salt water. The more rain we get the more the culverts fill up, when fishing these culverts and feeder creeks, try and find moving water where this will create back eddies. Using small to medium lightly weighted soft plastics and hard bodied lures have been a successful method for me in the past, producing good numbers of Barra, Tarpon & Saratoga.
